Subject: 2011 Tourism Forecast Issue 2 TFC Meeting 19 September 2011 [SEC=IN-CONFIDENCE]

Hi Andrew,

While I was on leave in mid July one of my TRA Forecast & Modelling team colleagues sent out an email invitation in relation to the next Tourism Forecasting Committee (TFC) meeting. Unfortunately, he used an out-of-date mailing list which meant he did not send the invite to you.

Subsequent to that email, we have also had to change the date of the meeting to 19 September due to unforeseen circumstances. Shortly, I'll be sending an updated meeting invite to all TFC members with the new meeting date and the location for the meeting (this had not been arranged at the time of the original email).

I look forward to seeing you on 19 September and sincerely apologise for the original meeting invite having not been sent to you.

Regards Justin

Justin Marshall
