Energy Market Reform Working Group Bulletin No. 116

Australian Energy Market Operator Implementation Plan Synopsis

The Ministerial Council on Energy (MCE) met on 4 March 2008 to discuss key aspects of the governance arrangements for the proposed Australian Energy Market Operator (AEMO).

At this meeting Ministers agreed to release a synopsis of the AEMO Implementation Plan.

AEMO will merge the current national electricity market operator (NEMMCO) with the various gas market operators in New South Wales, ACT, Queensland, Victoria and South Australia to create a single national energy market operator by 1 July 2009.
