

Greg McLeish - Manager, Supply Security, Department of Infrastructure

Greg is the Manager, Supply Security for the Energy and Security Division of the Victorian Department of Infrastructure.

His role is to monitor the supply outlook for electricity, gas and liquid fuels, maintain and develop Government emergency management arrangements, respond to any supply emergency that arise, and provide advice on regulatory and market development issues that are relevant to supply security.